

A watercolor illustration of a woman's face, rendered in soft, warm tones of yellow, orange, and pink. Her eyes are a deep, expressive brown. Her hair is depicted with vibrant, multi-colored washes of green, yellow, and blue, interspersed with delicate white butterflies and floral motifs. Her hands are positioned near her face, with intricate black line-art patterns of leaves and vines overlaid on the skin. The overall style is artistic and evocative, typical of folk art or children's book illustrations.
